We are now in our new location at 118 So. Main

We are not going to have a grand opening, but we are having a GRAND OPENING SALE in which every pair of shoes in the entire store will be featured. Today we speak of our $2.50 special, which is a store of ordinary buying and selling ability cannot approach. And for this very good and simple reason: Manufacturers of today are looking for large outlets; the bigger the factories the more they want to sell and for as they grow in size they can make goods much cheaper and better. They can buy their leathers and supplies at an opportune time and everything is done on such a large scale that it gives them every possible advantage. At certain seasons of the year every big factory has what is called slack time, yet they must furnish employment to their labor or else it goes elsewhere. So to keep things moving in this slack time concessions are made to large buyers, and we have always made it a point to have a large portion of our goods made up under these conditions. Thus you can very readily see that in the first place the shoes come to you in a decided saving, and then we figure that we would rather sell a large number of pairs at a small profit than a few pairs at a large profit. We will illustrate our proposition by taking our $2.50 shoes for men and women as a basis. Let us take the women's proposition and summer it down to one special item. Ladies' black cloth shoes in black and colors, with gum metal or superior quality patent vamp. The cloth top is as it goes into $5 and $6 shoes for women, and the vamps high-grade. Then, too, we have the plainest sorts in which the value is just as good. Take our men's $2.50 special, it is a Goodyear welt, hand process shoe, made by America's foremost producers of shoes for men. It is all solid, in every way thoroughly stylish and we buy this hundred dozen lot to get the price. These are simply little evidences and throughout this store this close selling and close buying rule prevails. We give values first, last and always. We give the best possible store service first, last and always. The proprietor and clerks have the customers' interests at heart first and always, for your satisfaction is our success. Are you willing to be shown. You will find us at our new location, 118 So. Main.

Yours shoely.

NEED NOT ACCEPT SCRIP

Supreme Court Upholds Decision of Judge Lewis in Suit Against Railroad.

In an opinion handed down by the supreme court yesterday Judge T. D. Lewis of the Third district court is upheld in the case of H. S. Kosminsky against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company, wherein Kosminsky sued for $5,000 damages for ejectment from one of the company's trains in Idaho.

Kosminsky had scrip for use on the railroad, which could be tendered for conduct only when passengers boarded trains from stations where no tickets were on sale. On March 27, 1906, Kosminsky boarded a Short Line train at Montpelier, Idaho, for Soda Springs, first exchanging his scrip for a ticket. On the train he decided to go to Pocatello. At Soda Springs the ticket office was closed while the agent handled freight. Unable to get a ticket, Kosminsky presented scrip to the conductor. It was refused and Kosminsky brought suit for ejectment. Judge Lewis instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the railroad company.

The supreme court opinion upholding Judge Lewis is written by Justice J. E. Frick and concurred in by Justice W. M. McCarty. In a concurring opinion Chief Justice D. N. Straup says: "It does mean that at stations where a reasonable opportunity is afforded to procure a ticket by reasonable efforts scrip will not be honored from such stations. If at such a station a ticket was obtained, and the holder of the scrip, through no fault on the part of the carrier, placed himself in a situation where he could not avail himself of the opportunity so afforded, such acts or conduct on his part, or inability occasioned or created by himself to obtain a ticket, do not, under the terms of the contract, give him the right to tender scrip."

BAR ACETIC ACID VINEGAR

Utah Dairy and Food Bureau Saves
Utah Consumers About $8,000.

In holding off from the markets of this state hundreds of barrels of diluted acetic acid, which were to have been sold to the consumer as vinegar, it is estimated that the state dairy and food bureau has saved the people of the state something like $8,000 during the last few months. Willard Hansen, state dairy and food commissioner, said Friday that the action of the bureau, in preventing the sale of the acid as vinegar, has produced a scarcity of the real article in the market.

In addition to saving the public from the expenditure of money for a cheap article, the bureau has done the few vinegar factories of the state a good turn by preventing them from having to compete with the other article. The commissioner has learned some time ago that acetic acid was being shipped into this state by wholesale from the east and was being sold as vinegar. The acid was being mixed with 3 per cent of the acid with 98 per cent of water, and giving the mixture a vinegar color by the addition of burnt sugar. Instances of the business were discovered and the commissioner ordered that barrels of the stuff should be labeled "diluted acetic acid," instead of vinegar. It is said there have been some violations of this order.

WIFE GETS $20 A WEEK

Husband Allowed to Draw $11 From the Bank, but Living Costs
$19.50.

Actual living expenses of Charles H. Miller, manager of the Royal laundry, are $19.50 a week, according to his statement in divorce court yesterday. Miller had been ordered by Judge C. W. Moore some time ago to pay $20 a week for the support of his wife, Maggie H. Miller, and their five children, pending the divorce hearing. Miller moved for a modification of the order. He said $10 a week was enough, because one son, 16 years old, is making $10 a week, and another, $15. Miller said he earned $25 a week. Modification of a recent order was made so Miller can draw $11 a week from his money in the National Bank of the Republic. This is for his own support, but he will have to pay his wife $20 a week until the hearing.

Attorney Van Cott, for Mrs. Miller, declared the money in the bank was originally $1,000 received for property. The accused Miller of signing the name of Mrs. Miller to the deed without her knowledge. He said there is only $483 left, and that should be held to pay the mortgage on the home where the family lives.
